From Caroline

Hi, Everyone!

Not much in the way of new news today.

We seem to be in a rather strange post-Pandemic transition period in which a "new normal" life is emerging, with some folks busily celebrating total mask-free freedom, while others are either still staying home or venturing out more cautiously. Peter and I are probably in the "somewhere in between" category. Having made it this far we don't want to screw things up now! But we're feeling very optimistic, so there is that!

In the Good News Department our "Brothers-in-Harmony", The Coastliners, got together on Saturday afternoon for their second "rehearsal" since restrictions were lifted. In fairly typical "guy style" they gathered in Frank's Manhattan Beach driveway with a pitch pipe and a keg of cold beer (not necessarily in that order)! No fuss and bother, they just got on with it, and by all accounts had an absolute blast!

As you have no doubt gathered, our approach to reconvening is a little less cavalier :-). Many thanks to everyone who has responded to Sharon S. with your completed survey. If you haven't yet had a chance to do that, PLEASE DO! (And if you have no idea what I'm talking about, need help submitting it or have questions, JUST ASK!) It will really help us to get an idea of what (and who) to expect when we gather for our much-anticipated reunion. It's going to be a grand day, for sure!

In the meantime, let's start getting our voices back in shape. On your marks, get set...SING!!!!

See you tonight on Zoom...

Cx

Hello LASTS! The Team and I got together recently to work out some plans for in-person rehearsals. One thing we decided was to get some feedback from you. If you could please follow this link to a quick survey we would greatly appreciate it. <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/82XB7KL>

We are also in communication with the Church about what would be possible in using their facilities. Please let me know if you have any trouble accessing the survey, or need accommodations to make your voice heard.

Thanks so much,
Sharon Savene
