From Caroline

HELLO, EVERYONE!

Long time, no see - literally! It feels a bit ridiculous, almost two weeks in, to be wishing you all a Happy New Year - but Happy New Year anyway! Despite the ongoing less-than-brilliant news (no news is good news, remember?) I'm choosing to be optimistic about the weeks and months ahead. Who knows? Maybe we'll get to actually see one another again this year - wouldn't that be grand? In the meantime, in the words of my culinary friends, we'll just have to "keep calm and curry on!" :-)

Tonight will be our first official Zoom get together of 2021 so I'm looking forward to seeing your shining faces popping up on my laptop. If you're not able to join us, just know that we miss you, we love you and we're here if you need anything!

Susie and I were chatting about our annual Auction of Unloved Holiday Gifts - for avid bargain hunters like us it has always been a favorite fundraising event. So...guess what? We decided to give it a go, virtual-style! Here's how it will go:

- Find your item
- Send Susie and me an email with a brief description and opening bid (no pictures needed) by Friday, Jan 14.
- Join us on next Monday's Zoom and have your item ready to show when it's your turn.
- Auction starts at 7:30pm
- I will act as auctioneer
- High bidders can mail a check to Marjorie or PayPal/Venmo me and I will forward a check.

- Assuming we have items for auction Susie and I can help coordinate pick-up/drop off as needed.

NEXT MONDAY will be the night so if you have a new, unused item that you'd like to offer up let me know via email and we'll put together a live auction program. If you have an item you'd like to have included but are unable to join us, let me know! Let's have some FUN!

That's it for now.

Whatever happens, stay well!!!

Cx
