HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO OUR FEBRUARY GAL!
Judy Petrone—25

From Caroline

Hi, Everyone!

Spring is here! Okay, it's not officially Spring yet, but it certainly feels like it here in Redondo Beach. Our pond turtles are out sunbathing, the daffodils are blooming and If we were meeting in person (which we will be again sooner or later!) we'd no doubt be inviting guests to join us for a celebratory Spring Fling!

Luckily we can celebrate, virtual-style, thanks to our Monday Night Zoom Rooms. And there's nothing to stop us inviting guests! Last week we were joined by former member and long-time friend of LASTS, Dolly Springs, who had a great time hanging out with us. We were thrilled to see her smiling face pop up on our screens - a happy surprise! Thanks to Ginger for inviting her along - the more, the merrier!

In other news, I hear that a couple of other Choruses in our Region are experimenting with ways to "sing together online". I'm sure I'll have a chance to learn more next weekend when I log in to our Directors' Group Zoom meeting (the first one of the year). Frankly, I'm a bit skeptical but I'll let you know what I find out!

In the meantime, if you're around tonight pop in to say hello - it's always great to see you!

Update on Maureen:

Maureen is doing well - but not quite well enough to go home yet - so she has been moved to a very nice rehab center where she is enjoying a luxurious private room with heated recliner and big screen TV! She is being very well taken care of and is in good spirits. (I suggested that she request an extended stay and late checkout :-). No visitors allowed due to Covid restrictions but if you'd like to send a card here is the address:

Berkley East Healthcare Center (Room 206)
