HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO OUR FEBRUARY GAL!
Judy Petrone—25

From Caroline

Hi, Everyone!

Happy Presidents' Day!

Not much in the way of news today - hopefully that means that "No news is good news"? I just hope you're all staying well and out of mischief (well, okay, a little mischief is fine :-)

We're so lucky to be living here - this morning the sun is shining, the hummingbirds are out on the porch enjoying their breakfast and I can back my car out without first having to chip ice off the windshield.

I will, however, have to start chipping the rust off my vocal cords sometime soon. Singing correctly is quite an athletic pursuit so I need to think about getting my voice back in shape! It's on my list of Things to Do! But first, my clients' To Do lists have piled up since Saturday (yep, I'm back to working a solid six days a week) so I'd better attend to them first - even though I keep reminding myself that's good news too, I'd much rather play!

Hopefully you all have the Holiday off today and can enjoy doing a little of whatever your hearts desire!

We had some fun Valentine's themed Zoom Room time together last Monday - looking forward to seeing your smiling faces again tonight...I'll be there!

Congratulations to Ginger and Lynn who are our queens of our Valentine's Day Quiz! Caroline cooked up a fun quiz for our zoom session, and these two gals answered the most questions correctly.

Here is a link to watch the Live Allen's Hummingbird Nest Cam. You can link to lots of nature cameras from youtube.

The Big Bear camera has the bald eagle nest cam and Jacquie just laid another clutch of eggs after the 1st 2 being eaten by ravens when the parents went out to get food. Nature is tough!
