Hi, Everyone!

Hope you're all doing well?

Nothing much to report from our house - and these days, no news is definitely good news, right? My work seems to be picking back up with some fun new design projects coming in - I guess that's good, although I was getting quite comfortable in my enforced "semi-retirement" mode. I might have to put a couple of my vintage furniture refinishing projects on hold now - doh! Just when I was starting to get the hang of it. Oh, well! Gotta pay the bills first, right Marjorie? Right!

Our topic for our Zoom meeting tonight will be sharing good book/TV/movie recommendations. If you were on last Monday's Zoom Room you may have heard one piece of excellent news: Nancy Pearson reported that our newest member, Laura Robinette, had a baby boy a couple of weeks ago. Laura - if you happen to read this, CONGRATULATIONS to you and your family! Love and best wishes from us all!

News from the Region: Plans are in the works for a VIRTUAL Fall Festival and the Convention Team is lining up an array of talent to present online sessions. The line up includes the legendary Dr. Jim Henry which, I have to say, is quite a coup. (Dr. Henry is a champion quartet bass, Director of St. Louis' Ambassadors of Harmony Chorus, a music historian and all-round fascinating guy.) More on Fall Festival to come from the Region. In the meantime check your calendar if you're interested in attending any sessions.

That's it for now - gotta get to work :-)

See you tonight on ZOOM!
