HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO THESE DECEMBER LADIES!

Linda Borg—1, Alli Tsukimura—6, Janet Reid—6, Caroline McLean—25

From Caroline

Hi, Everyone!

Hope you all managed to have a good Thanksgiving! I noticed a flurry of greetings and good wishes popping up on social media in the last week - it warms the cockles to see so many of us staying in touch by whatever means that works! For those of you who don't "do" Facebook, Instagram etc. just know we love you too!

This seemingly never-ending "Social Distancing" situation is forcing us to be quite creative when it comes to celebrating special events and annual traditions. Last week was my mum's 80th Birthday, which we had planned to celebrate with a grand Summer Tea Party in my sister's country cottage garden. So much for that!

However, all was not lost. Both sisters came to the rescue and invited her to a Party-of-Three on a select bench in the grounds of a local stately home. It was freezing cold and raining - of course! - but they came fully equipped with plastic bags (to sit on) and golf umbrellas. Much to the amusement of passing walkers (nothing stops the British taking their Morning Constitutional) they celebrated in style with balloons, bubbly and cupcakes (with lit candles!) When the rain finally eased up they presented her with various gifts including a spiffy red hat and a framed collage of family photos (seen here).

If you have any fun photos of yourselves "making the most of a bad situation" celebrating a special occasion during lockdown, send them to Konnie-with-a-K. I'm sure she'll be glad to add them to her latest Chorus scrapbook. One day (hopefully SOON) we'll look back at her 2020 history book and say, "Wow! That was a CRAZY Year!"

In the meantime I'll see you on Zoom tonight. Let's sing along again with Christmas in Killarney PLUS White Christmas. If you feel like brushing up on both songs today, feel free! Our neighbors already have their colossal, inflatable, glow-in-the-dark penguin on display so the festive season must be upon us!
Deck the halls...fa la la la lah...
