Hi, Everyone!

Happy Monday! It's a windy one today - surf's up, the Pier is closed and I'm keeping a close eye on the giant (swaying) ficus tree in front of house. The City tree trimming guys were out Saturday for a meeting to discuss the much needed pruning of said tree. After much standing around and stroking of chins (and after having us move our cars, potted plants and garden solar lights) they disappeared without so much as snipping a twig...and who knows when they'll be back? Our tax dollars at work :-) Stay tuned!

Thanks for everyone who joined in last Monday night's Virtual Auction of Unloved Gifts. We had a lot of fun and raised a nice little sum for our Chorus coffers too! Special thanks to Susie and Marjorie and to Susan W. for coming by on Saturday to drop off my winning tin of chocolate fudge. It's positively sinful stuff but, ahhhh! Thanks also to Roxie for gifting me her win of a pretty flowered shopping bag. Now I just need a chance to go shopping :-)

Hope you can all stay indoors today (unless you're a surfer!)
See you tonight...same time, same place!

Cx

Just to let you know that the Stay at Home Choir has just started their new song. It is Sogni di Volare by Christopher Tan. If you want to sing with them check out their site.
