VIRTUAL VALENTINE'S NIGHT TONIGHT!

What day is this? Ah, yes, Monday! Just kidding - there's no mistaking Mondays around here - one major clue is that the newspaper is much thinner than yesterday :-)

Hope you're all doing well? I'm hearing through our Chorus grapevine that a few of you, despite the insane obstacle courses involved, have managed to snag appointments and get your first Covid vaccine shots - hurray - that's excellent news! Peter had his shot #1 on Friday with minimal after effects (other than a slightly sore arm). So far, so good, things are definitely looking up!!

Last weekend Peter, Lucy and I helped celebrate the 80th birthday of Rick Llewellyn, long-time Coastliner and friend of LASTS, by attending a drive/by event organized by his daughter, Mary (a former Chorus member and also friend of LASTS). It was so marvelous to see the Coastliner guys, IN PERSON, along with a few of our own (Alli, Kate, Rachel) and we all commented afterwards it really made us realize how much we truly miss seeing each other. We're so lucky we have our Zoom time but nothing beats seeing a smiling face up close (OK, not TOO close, at least just yet :-)) in person. Hopefully soon...

On the subject of Zoom tonight we'll be having our FIRST (and, let's hope, LAST) Virtual Valentine's Night! So feel free to wear something red and/or pink (c'mon, you only have to worry about your waist up!) and we'll have some fun!

"I won't need a bag. I'll eat it here."

I've put together a short Valentine's QUIZ which will happen around 7:30 so join us from the comfort of your couch and we'll spread a little love together! See you there!!!
